TEMPORARY MOVE.

SOME CAR.

The changes in the 1917 model of the Ford makes it "One of Them." Haselden Bros., have received instructions that one of the new models is now on the road, with a new crown sheet, new radiator and new hood. This will make a much better looking car, and with all this they have cut the price.

GOOD TRIP.

Mr. R. T. Embry returned Saturday with his family after a pleasant trip to Niagara Falls and points in Ohio. He made the entire trip in his Oakland and was gone for ten days. Mr. Embry tells us that he had no tire trouble during his entire trip and was not stopped a single time on account of his car.

POLITICAL OPENING.

Hon. Edwin P. Morrow, who was defeated by Mr. Stanley for the Governorship of Kentucky last November, will open the Republican campaign in this county next Monday. Mr. Morrow is a forceful speaker and has many friends in this county who will be here to greet him.

COUNTY COURT TRIALS.

In the County Court this week, Ulysses Peters, was fined $50 and costs before Judge Arnold, for Breach of the Peace. In the same court Simon Payne drew a fine of $50 and costs for malicious shooting. Jasper Kay tried by a jury for selling whiskey, was found not guilty.

POLICE COURT DOINGS.

In the police court this week, Judge F. P. Frisbie sitting, Charles Goins was given a fine of $10 and costs for very disorderly conduct and a plain drunk. Leslie Anderson, noted and famous for his whiskey selling proclivities, drew a fine of $100 and 30 days in jail. This is Anderson's second offense since June 1st, and under the new law made by the last Legislature, another conviction on the same charge will land him behind the Frankfort penitentiary.

GLEN LILY FLOUR WINS.

An expert cake maker and GLEN LILY flour won both the blue and red at the Mt. Vernon fair last week. Mrs. Wili Palmer made the cakes and they were exhibited by Prewitt Thompson. They were shown against cakes made from the best flour that can be had in Kentucky and some expert bakers. Some of the flour shown against them, was Lexington Cream and Ballard's Obelisk but Glen Lily, made from Garrard county wheat, beats them all. THE BEST IN THE WORLD. Let's make it unanimous. (7-20-21)

MACHINE TURNS TURTLE.

While traveling at possibly a too rapid rate over the Boone Highway last Sunday afternoon and turning a sharp curve, the machine driven by Mr. Tate and accompanied by Mrs. Tate and two children, turned turtle and came near resulting fatally to some of the occupants who escaped by the narrowest margin. All four occupants were pinned underneath the car and but for prompt assistance from others passing the result would have been serious. The car was partially wrecked and the family was taken to the home of W. H. Brown where they received medical care. It was soon seen that none of them were seriously injured. Mr. Tate many years ago was a resident of this county and is well remembered by many friends in his old Garrard home.

STANFORD FAIR.

IN FULL BLAST WITH FINE SHOW OF STOCK.

The Stanford fair opened yesterday under the most favorable condition, with a nice crowd for first day attendance and with the best display of stock had there in years. One of the chief attractions is the large exhibition of the Kentucky Red Berkshire hogs with nearly one hundred entries. Garrard county, as usual, is winning her share of the premiums and good judges pronounce the exhibition by far the best ever shown of this popular breed. They show much more finish, conformation and good feeding, than in any previous year. The winners in this class yesterday were as follows: Junior Boar, 15 entries, Robert Walker won 1st, with Verduin and second with Crimmon Clover. Junior Sow, 20 entries, W. O. Walker, 1st, W. B. Turley, 2nd; Senior Boar, 4 entries, R. T. Bruce, 1st, W. B. Turley, 2nd. Senior Sow, 9 entries, R. T. Bruce, 1st, R. J. Walker, 2nd. Junior Yearling Boar, 2 entries, Woods Walker & Son, 1st, W. O. Walker, 2nd. Junior Yearling Sow, 5 entries, Woods Walker & Son, 1st, W. O. Walker, 2nd. Senior Yearling Boar, 3 entries, W. B. Denny, 1st, W. B. Turley, 2nd. Boar Two Years Old and Over, 3 entries, W. B. Turley, 1st, J. G. Burnside, 2nd. Sow Two Years Old and Over, 6 entries, Robt. Walker, 1st, Woods Walker & Son, 2nd. Boar Any Age, 11 entries, R. T. Bruce, 1st, W. B. Denny, 2nd. Sow Any Age, 11 entries, Woods Walker & Son, 1st, R. T. Bruce, 2nd.

Junior Herd, 5 entries, W. O. Walker, 1st, R. J. Walker, 2nd. Herd Any Age, Woods Walker & Son, 1st, W. O. Walker, 2nd.

Mr. Lester Rogers, of the firm of Rogers Bros., of Harrodsburg, Ky., awarded the prizes in the hog class and gave perfect satisfaction to all exhibitors, proving himself a good judge of swine and one of the coming judges of this class in the state.

Garrard county showed her colors again in the Jersey Cattle show, which also was one of the best exhibitions of this class ever shown in this section of the state. The winners in this class were hotly contested, but Mr. G. B. Swinebroad, who has sown a national reputation for one of the best herds in the state, carrying off a majority of the blue ties, as the winning show. Best cow two years and over; G. B. Swinebroad, 1st, Curran Bros., 2nd. Heifer one and under two; G. B. Swinebroad, 1st, Curran Bros., 2nd. Calf under one year; Curran Bros., 1st, G. B. Swinebroad, 2nd. Bull any age; G. B. Swinebroad, 1st, Curran Bros., 2nd. Best herd bull and three females, G. B. Swinebroad, 1st, Curran Bros., 2nd.

Mr. W. G. Gooch had the misfortune to lose his handsome boar, Little Prince from being overheated. The loss is a severe one to the Association, as this hog was the sire of some of the prize winners, and he himself was never defeated in the show ring. Mr. Woods Walker and son are grieving over the loss of "Little Prince" from overheating while being hauled from Paint Lick to Stanford last Monday.

To-day and to-morrow will be the best days of the fair and some extra fine rings of horses are entered for these two days.

We appreciate our subscribers and dislike very much to discontinue a single paper. Should any of you fail to pay and cause us to discontinue your paper, you still owe the debt which is as just as any you ever made.
